The Sinaisky-Kislenko duo, praised for their “seamless ensemble” and “sensitive expressivity” (Santa Barbara News Press), formed in 2010. The duo has appeared in numerous venues around the country, including the University of Maryland College Park, the University of California Santa Barbara, Colorado State University, University of Wyoming and the Embassy of Russian Federation in Washington, D.C., to name a few.

Russian pianist Natasha Kislenko is currently on keyboard faculty at UC Santa Barbara and the Music Academy of the West in Montecito, CA. She has received various international awards in piano competitions in Germany, France, Slovak Republic, Italy, and Portugal. In 1996 Ms. Kislenko made her Carnegie Hall solo recital debut, and has since concertized extensively across the Americas and in Europe. Israeli pianist Ilya Sinaisky is a former Assistant Professor of Collaborative Piano at Colorado State University, currently on the faculty of the Rubin Conservatory in Haifa, Israel. He too has received numerous honors and awards, including second prize at the Darius Milhaud Performance Competition in Cleveland, and the Robert McCoy Prize for excellence in collaborative piano at the University of Maryland.
